Darren Flanagan... a humble and reluctant "celebrity" so claustrophobic he cannot do a sleeping bag up. Darren received a call late on a Sunday night. Darren will tell how that one call changed his life from an ordinary family man to a real hero of the great escape which is emotive, dramatic and inspiring. Darren was nicknamed "The Gun" because he was the one who charged and fired the explosives that eventually released from their tomb 925m underground the Beaconsfield miners Todd Russell & Brant Webb. Darren will tell us about the achievements, the inspiration, the motivation and the risk management involved in this rescue.

Noel Whittaker ...Noel is one of Australia's leading financial advisers. Ray Scicluna... "wasn't the brightest kid at school, but is one of the sharpest tools in the shed". Left school at 13, could not read or write but still turned over more than 90 million dollars by the age of 27. At 29 Ray lost the lot! His Father said "there'll be days like this". Self employed for 34 years he owned 3 franchises, including "Video Ezy". Currently MD of "All Good Stuff", Ray's targeted area will be, Opportunites and Difficulties - work with both, Management-getting the best out of people & create magic moments; Life - set a better sail; Inspiration- get it done.
