9:15	Privacy &amp; Piracy- Robert Redenbach. Sponsored by Johnson & Johnson Medical Good communicators should avoid clichés "like the plague". That being said, life really is a journey. At the outset you have gone nowhere and you know nothing. As you travel you gain knowledge, you grow, you move forward. Naturally you are going to make wrong turns and mistakes along the way. It does not matter where you go or what you do, there is risk, uncertainty in everything. But this fact should not hold you back. Rob presentations will help you deal with challenges & uncertainties in a less-than-perfect world, bring into focus how well organisations work or don't work, help us deal with problems and faults in our work environment. Rob will show us how to be our own bodyguard, how to manage high risk and everyday life, provide leadership & planning techniques. Rob will also present on Piracy - what does it encompass, are we all guilty of this?
10:30	Morning Tea in Exhibitors Hall Sponsored by Pharmatel Fresenius Kabi
11:00	Does the Pressure ever stop, part 1. Facilitated by Robert Redenbach. The opportunity for all delegates present to raise concerns, challenges & issues faced day to day. Breakout session will give every delegate the opportunity to openly discuss issues with aim to problem solving.
12:45	Lunch in Exhibitors Hall Sponsored by Air Liquide Healthcare
1:45	Capping the Pressure, part 2... Facilitated by Rob Redenbach. All breakout groups will present a short summary of the issues discussed and solution offered. A fact sheet will be compiled of summaries and will be available at end of conference.
2:30	Afternoon Tea in Exhibition Hall Sponsored by Sentry Medical

1:30	Post Conference Activity Organised by Industry Liaison Group - An opportunity to participate in a social game of golf at the conclusion of conference, or spend the afternoon enjoying the sites of Bendigo

Points of Interest

Authentic deep-shaft mine experience at Central Deborah, where you don a miner's hat and travel underground to walk in the footsteps of the miners. The famous Vintage Talking Tram tour weaves through the historic streets of Bendigo, telling wonderful stories of days gone by. The original 1860's Chinese Joss House and the Golden Dragon Museum display the Chinese heritage of the area and house the world's oldest Imperial Dragon, Loong.

Bendigo Art Gallery has a strong reputation with a significant collection. An award-winning, architecturally designed café was added to the building. The Bendigo Pottery is famous, with its display and sales complex set around vast old beehive kilns. Experience the thrill of learning to throw a returning boomerang at Wycheproof Boomerangs, and for the curious at heart, there's a great experience for you at Confectionary Capers. For the active at heart there is Australia's highest Vertical Slide at Discovery Science & Technology Centre. To find out more about the farming heritage visit Campaspe Run in Elmore. Visit the Making a Nation Exhibition to explore Bendigo's history. Since 1901 the dreams of Bendigo have been captured in the fascination and permanent exhibition located in the Old Post Office Building along Pall Mall.
